

EuroMCM Registration Walkthrough

NOTE: This article serves as a supplementary resource and does not substitute the official registration details and Instructions available on the contest website (www.euromcm.org). Participants must carefully review and adhere to the guidelines provided on the official site.

Part 1: Advisor Registration

Begin by setting up a EuroMCM Advisor account. Simply input your email address into the designated field and click Start Registration to proceed.

The EuroMCM registration process has been streamlined and divided into two parts:

1. Advisor Registration
2. Team Registration (€80 per team)

Any advisor who wishes to sponsor teams in the 2026 EuroMCM contest must complete the registration through this online system by 3 pm CET on Wednesday, March 25, 2026.

Please note: There is an €80 registration fee for each team to participate in the EuroMCM this year, which you will need to pay using Stripe during the online sign-up process. Be sure your payment method is supported by Stripe when beginning the registration.

New Advisor Registration

If you are a team advisor and have not previously registered for this year's EuroMCM (previous years' registrations do not count), please enter your email address in the box below and click the "Start Registration" button.

2 Paper Submission

Problem selection and paper submissions will be made available once the contest begins at 5 p.m. CET on Thursday, March 26, 2026. Please return to this page at that time, or when your team has completed its solution paper.

If the advisor is unavailable or facing login issues, team members can use the this channel to submit their paper directly. Please ensure you have your Team ID and Advisor's email address ready.

We strongly recommend that you fill out the team information (Team Category & Members) as soon as possible after registering the team.

You can modify the team information and save changes at any time from the moment you register the team until 48 hours before the contest, and this information will appear on the certificates. However, once the contest starts, you may only remove team members who did not participate, with the unanimous consent of the entire team, and no other changes can be made.

The blue checkmark indicates that you have completed the team information. Teams that have not completed their information will not be eligible for any awards or designations.
